TELL US WHERE YOU BELONG AT TVO.ORG

- TVO launches interactive microsite to accompany Belong or Bust: Where Do I Fit In? – a week of documentaries, dramas and current affairs programs in primetime March 22 to 29 exploring the themes of belonging and identity.
- Visitors can share their stories of belonging at tvo.org.

Toronto, March 16, 2009 – Do you remember the first time you moved to a new school, a new city or a new country and trying to fit in? Have your views about family, religion and culture evolved over the years? Whatever your stories of how you define yourself and where you view yourself in society, TVO wants to hear from you at tvo.org.

Each night in primetime from March 22 to 29, TVO's Belong or Bust: Where Do I Fit In? will explore a variety of viewpoints on the themes of culture and identity and our place in society through a collection of premier documentaries, dramas and current affairs programs. Accompanying this special week will be a feature-rich microsite at tvo.org where visitors can share their stories of belonging on the Agenda with Steve Paikin interactive map. The stories can be submitted by either text or video. Guests appearing on the Agenda with Steve Paikin, along with Belong or Bust hosts Andrew Moodie, Sandra Shamas and Russell Smith will also share experiences that put belonging in perspective.

The website will also include:

- A complete schedule of the Belong or Bust programs on TVO
- Fully-streamed catch-up episodes of the documentaries My New Home, Carny and Examined Life, and the drama White Girl.
- Articles by Belong or Bust hosts Andrew Moodie, Sandra Shamas, Russell Smith submitted throughout the week.
- Belong or Bust Quiz: a true or false quiz testing common misconceptions about belonging and identity.
